That it is advisable for Tropico to acquire the water system by which it is served would appear to be the almost unanimous opinion of its citizens if their expressions of approval at recent campaign meetings were a reliable index of public sentiment. Whenever the proposition was mentioned it evoked applause.

The purchase was recommended by Los Angeles officials speaking in the interest of consolidation with that city, the statement being made that in the event of consolidation it could be handled by Los Angeles under the district system, i. e., the cost assessed against the district and the revenues applied to the payment of interest, principal, etc.

Judge Taft of Santa Monica, opposing consolidation with Los Angeles, also spoke favorably of such a purchase, stating that Santa Monica had voted to buy its system though it knew it was paying 25 per cent more than it was worth. "But the results." he said, "had justified the wisdom of the purchase as the revenues are taking care of the interest and sinking fund though water rates have been greatly reduced.

Whatever the fate of Tropico may be as a municipality, its people need water and a distributing system. The majority realize that a better chance to secure the control of this important public utility is not likely to come their way and it is altogether probable that the bond election, which the city trustees will call in October, will carry by a handsome majority. It will mean a saving to the city of $900 now spent for fire hydrant service, it will mean cheaper water for the private consumer, and no additional taxes.

PALACE GRAND PROGRAMS

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the announcement of the Palace Grand which appears on the inside of our first cover page, where you will find a full list of the attractions at that popular house for the ensueing week.

Each week hereafter, this space will be occupied in the same manner, and should prove interesting reading for their many Tropico patrons.

The "Palace Grand" features all the big film attractions, the same as shown at the big Los Angeles houses and often at reduced rates. For instance, Los Angeles patrons paid 20 to 50c to see "Jack and the Beanstalk" while patrons of the Palace Grand will pay only 15, 20 and 25 cents.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Run up Old Glory!

Let it blaze
In red and white against the sky
And tell the story of the days
When hearts were stout and hopes were high

Forget the daily fights of greed,
Forget the struggles, the dismay
Of facing cruelty and need—

Run up Old Glory for the day.

Run up Old Glory!

Think of all
The old flag means to you and me,
Of how the blast of freedom's call
Shook out its folds from sea to sea;
Red with the blood that it has cost,
White with the souls of them that died—
To-day by laughing breezes tossed
It whispers of a nation's pride.

Run up Old Glory!

Fling it forth

And feel anew the country-call

That thrills East, West and South and North

And has its word for one and all.

Run up Old Glory—fling it far

Across the blue of heaven's dome,

And feel that every stripe and star

Is warder of your hearth and home.

MARIAN KENNEDY HONORED

Miss Marian Kennedy was guest of honor at a party given last Thursday afternoon by Mesdames Fanny Marple and Charles Retts at the Marple home on Palmer avenue. The girls of the Sunday School class of which she is a member were entertained informally by their teacher. There was a brief business session and the balance of the afternoon was devoted to games. Refreshments were served about five o'clock. Marian is leaving Tropico to make her home in Pasadena, where her father will teach the coming year. Other guests were: Beulah Millard, Gladys Goddard, Helen Muhleman, Geneva Martin and Winifred Bacon.

OUR SOLDIER BOYS

The Sentinel is advised by Mr. John P. Wilson, chairman of the exemption board of this district, that of the men who have been accepted and regularly enlisted under the first draft call, six are to go forward the fifth (Wednesday). On the 19th of September fifty more men will be sent to a training camp, and October 3rd fifty more will be sent.

Mr. Wilson states that another call from the draft list of this district is being made this week for 130 men to fill up the quota of the district. This call is necessary because of the large numbers of married men who will be released under President Wilson's new policy of exemption. The examination of these 130 men will take place September 10th at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters in Glendale.

Everything possible is being done to honor these boys whom Uncle Sam has chosen to uphold the honor of the United States in a world war for democracy against autocracy. Nothing is considered too good for them and the boys will not find it easy to attend all the functions planned for their entertainment.

Purchase Ranch

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lane of 226 Boynton avenue have purchased a twenty-acre ranch about seven miles from Fresno of which they expect to take possession in about three weeks, or as soon as they can make some disposition of their Tropico property.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES MEET

School Trustees of the Tropico district met Monday evening at the Cerritos school. Also present at the meeting were Mr. Dickerson, the new principal, Mrs. Searle, the janitress, and Mesdames Mary Ayers and W. C. Wattles, who came to confer with the board in regard to a petition sent in by parents in the neighborhood of the Acacia school asking for a continuance of the A2, A3 and B3 grades in that school. The board took the matter under advisement but felt they could not act until after the opening of school, as the enrollment of pupils would necessarily determine the matter.

Bills for various small items of equipment and repair were presented by Mrs. Barker as clerk and O. K.'d by the other members.

On request, Mrs. Searle presented a list of other small repairs needed before the opening of the school and Mrs. Barker and Mr. Hibben agreed to cooperate with her in having the repairs made. Also the board voted to provide paint for the renovation of the kindergarten room, Mrs. Searle volunteering to do the work.

Miss Gladys Hamilton was appointed to the position of librarian at $5 per month.

The purchase of a new flag for the flag pole was one of the items of expenditure for which the board voted unanimously, and arrangements were made for the repair of the piano and its removal to the kindergarten room.

Mr. Lowinsky of Los Angeles came before the board with school sanitary supply samples and was given an order for five cases of "Only One" paper towels, for five gallons of liquid soap and an apparatus for disinfecting and deodorizing lavatories.

Mr. Dickerson asked for instructions as to his powers and duties, explained what had been required of him as superintendent of schools in Imperial. He and the board members reached an excellent understanding and at the request of the board he will assist them in finding a teacher to fill the vacancy in the Cerritos school, preferrably a man.

School will open for the registration of pupils Monday, September 17, and pupils will be expected to enroll at the school they were attending

THE EXEMPTION BOARD

Mrs. A. L. Bancroft has been exceedingly busy the past week assisting at the headquarters of the Board of Review in the Chamber of Commerce building, Los Angeles. seeking exemption file their claims and state the facts to Mrs. Bancroft and others who are working with her and she turns over their papers with her own report to the board, which has jurisdiction of the whole southern district. In general, men who have supported their wives and children are exempt. Farmers who own their land or who are personally engaged in farming leased lands are likewise exempt, also the foreman of large ranches. Mrs. Bancroft says many aliens come in and plead for exemption on the ground that they have "ancien parents" in the old country who are dependent upon their remittances. There are other cases where patriotism flames out triumphantly. Married men who have filed claims come back after a few days and ask to withdraw their applications because the wife has found a job and thinks she can support herself and leave her husband free to go in defense of liberty and the honor of the Stars and Stripes. Sacrifices like that demonstrate that the spirit which founded this republic is still alive in the hearts of our people.

Great Help.

"My children are very fastidious about their eating. Sometimes I envy the mother birds."

"Why so? They have to work very hard to feed their young."

"Yes, but there's no kicking about this and that. The youngsters don't know what they are going to have for dinner until it is halfway down their throats."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

OUR EMBRYO ARMY

The summer vacation season is nearly over and students and teachers are beginning to think of their work for the coming year. While the great world war is of absorbing interest and its problems are making many demands upon our time, our interest and our purses, we cannot afford to sidetrack educational work or cut down the efficiency of our schools. President Wilson emphasized this thought in his letter to Secretary Lane of July 21 in which he said:

"It would seriously impair America's prospects of success in this war if the supply of highly trained men were unnecessarily diminished. There will be need for a larger number of persons expert in the various fields of applied science than even before. Such persons will be needed both during the war and after its close. I therefore have no hesitation in urging colleges and technical schools to endeavor to maintain their courses as far as possible on the usual basis."

In elaborating this theme the Committee on Public Information says in its recently published National Service Handbook:

"Medical students have been urged by the hospitals to remain at their studies and under no conditions to enlist in the medical or other branches of the service, until their courses were completed. Then, when they will be urgently needed, they can take their places in the Medical Corps as fully trained doctors.

"Engineers. No less important is the work of the engineering schools, which should not be allowed to become disorganized. Modern warfare is so largely a matter of experts, experts in transportation, industry and organization, that a depletion of technical engineering forces would be comparable in its effects to the loss of an army corps. The building of aircraft, of ships, the planning of camps, trenches, mines and roads, the organization of rail transportation for troop and supply movements, all demand an army of technically trained men. And after the war is over the allied countries are counting upon American aid. Our own industrial development, moreover, will be irremediably handicapped if our technical forces are not constantly fed. A breakdown in the engineering education of the country at this time would be a loss of one of the most essential instruments of industrial welfare and efficiency.

"Elementary and high schools. For the same reasons as those just outlined, the elementary and high schools of the country must be kept going even more effectively than in times of peace. It is the part of wisdom to prepare ourselves for a long struggle, and if the higher technical ranks of the country are to be maintained at their full strength, the schools which are the feeders of the technical colleges must be kept at the top notch of efficiency."

Fertile Socotra.

Socotra, a large island in the Indian ocean, is one of the least known of the inhabited parts of the world. It is mountainous, but very fertile, and in ancient times was famed for frankincense and myrrh, aloes, dragon's blood and spices. But now Sumatra and South America produce more dragon's blood
